

Please don't let banks make a mockery of Indiana's telephone privacy law. Life has been sooo good since this took effect. Hat's off to the work of our Attorney General and those other brave Attorneys General across the country who have helped create a saner home environment with the passage of telephone privacy laws.